Cost breakdown at a glance

CTP Insurer's Premium
Covers the estimated cost of claims for personal injury to third parties arising from motor vehicle crashes, as well as the insurer's delivery costs and profit margin.

National Injury Insurance Scheme Queensland Levy (NIISQ)
Covers the estimated costs of the NIISQ which provides necessary and reasonable treatment, care and support for a person who sustains a particular serious personal injury in a motor vehicle accident in Queensland regardless of fault.

Hospital and Emergency Services Levy
Covers a reasonable portion of the estimated cost of providing public hospital and emergency services to people who are injured in motor vehicle accidents and who are potential claimants under the Queensland CTP scheme.

Nominal Defendant Levy
Covers the estimated costs of the Nominal Defendant scheme which covers claims where an uninsured (unregistered) or unidentified vehicle is at-fault.

Administration Fee
Provided to the Department of Transport and Main Roads for delivering administrative support for the CTP scheme.

Statutory Insurance Scheme Levy
Covers the estimated operating costs of administering the Motor Accident Insurance Act 1994.

Update on CTP insurers

RACQ will stop providing CTP insurance on 1 October 2023. If you currently have CTP insurance with RACQ you will remain insured until your policy ends, at which point the Department of Transport and Main Roads will reallocate your policy to another insurer. No action is needed unless you wish to choose a different CTP insurer. If your CTP insurance is not with RACQ, you do not need to do anything.

You can select your CTP insurer at www.service.transport.qld.gov.au/changectpinsurance and it will apply from your next registration renewal.
